THE CREST 1926

In spite of the short time Mr. Fisher has been Superintendent of Peoria Public Schools, his friendliness and inspiration have made him a host of admirers in our number.

It is with deep and sincere appreciation that we, the students of Peoria High School, dedicate to him this, our third volume of THE CREST

FOREWORD

To fulfill its purpose, a year-book should be a storehouse of memory—a reminder of days gone by. If, in any way, we have succeeded in bringing to the printed page something of the happiness and spirit of our high school days, our efforts will not have been in vain.

Miss Newell and Mr. Burns

On Fuesday, September 6, there arrived at Peoria High School a group of students who, judged by their actions, were new to the school. They were the freshman class of 1925, or more commonly called the class of 199.

Now this class is almost out of their freshman year. They will soon be sophomores. They have had a part in Student Government, and they are a part of the student body by action as well as name.

Some of their number have brought fame to their class. The most notable are the three men who made the r letters in fortball, a fact which will be remembered for many years. These have are Russel Page, Marshall Allen, and Wilbur Bouton.

On April 21, the class became better acquainted by having a party in the boys' gym. This was one of the most successful freshman parties ever given.

May these students be as happy, as they continue the road of high school life, as they have been as freshmen.

This is the fourth year for the Council in Peoria High, but never before in its history has it made such progress as it has this year under the able leavership of Lawrence Mortett, its president. "Lat's" every effort has been for the Council, and he has helped to show what co-operation among the students truly is.

Sincot the nest important steps that the Camer considered indiplied before the school for adoption this year were:

(1) Changing of the school's monthly magazine, the Opinion, to a weekly paper.

(2) Establishing self-government in the study halls.

(3) Conducting a Book Exchange department.

(4) Sponsoring school dances.

(5) Passing a Civil Service of dealing with eighbory of students to

Opheleia

Opheleia is closing its third year of service and loyalty to Peoria High School. From a beginning in the "Senior Girls Service Society" it has grown into three chapters representing the sophomore, numer and senior classes, or Gamma, Beta and Alpha Opheleia.

It has been the sincere endeavor of every Opheleia girl to give her best in activities for our school, as well as to keep up our scholastic standard. Since the members are elected by the faculty, each girl feels her especial responsibility in deserving the honor of membership.

Opheleia was in charge of the Rainbow Football Banquet this year. The every day service has been carried on by helping Miss Fisher in the library, Miss Bartlett in her office, and at the Lost and Found department. The girls sold candy at "Thank-U" and registered visitors during Go-to-School week. They have tried to help at all times in all things. Our lova and able sponsors are. Miss Hawkins, Miss Wilson, Miss Ottenheimer, Miss Boynton, Miss Hayes, Miss Roberts and Miss Coppock.

The three highest aims of Ophicia are service, lovalty and friend mess to everyone and everything in our Peoria High School.

The Opinion

Without doubt the greatest achievement of the Opinion for the year 1925-26 is the change in form and publication. For the past few years a nazazine has proved to be madequate for the wants of a high school the size of ours. A weekly paper was inevitable.

The first issue of the Opinion in its new form appeared October 1, a five column, four page paper.

Of course in making the change, it meant that new systems, a new style of writing, and new methods of business must be introduced. This called for the co-operation of all concerned. And it was only brought about through the hard work of the faculty adviser, Mr. Muirhead, and the members of the staff, with Dale Phalen as the very capable editorin-chief.

New members had to be added to the staff; it required constant work to put the paper out every week, and an entirely new side of school life—the absolute side—had to be to a covered; a lof these problems presented themselves.

Immediately, negotiations were begun for a printing press of our own With this a better paper was assured, and a much more convenient and practical method of publishing it. At length, through the instrumentality of Mr. Mairheld and Mr. Cromwell, a flat-bed Campell press, a knotype machine, an intertype machine, a cutter, a folder, a small hand press, and type to print almost anything, were purchased by the Opticion Now Peoria High School can boast of a very good print shop.

The Opinion, however, soon proved too small, and it was enlarged to six columns, which is now its present size.

The Opinion as it now stands is a part of the school life. The news in it is not dead from a month ago, but it is timely and that is what counts. Students lock to the Opinion for information, not for a record of stories and events of the past month.

The Opinion can be said to be strictly a high school product. It is edited by a staff of students, set up by a class composed of students, and printed by students. It is a students' paper.

Press Room

The above picture is that of the Opinion Press in operation. This press was bought by the Opinion without any surside and from the school board. Due to the business ability of Mr. Muirhead, ably abetted by Mr. Cromwell, the Opinion has this year undertaken the publication of a weekly newspaper on its own press. This matter of student publication is one of the greatest steps to be undertaken by a high school and it has been successfully accomplished by Peoria High School.

Crest

The Crest represents the culmination of the school year, and gives an outlook into the school life of the individual students. It combines the memories of school and friends with a chronicle of the year's activities. In propagly no other way can the recollections of faces and events of school and friends, be kept vivid in the minds of those who watched the drama of high school life as it unfolded before them.

Out of the custom of devoting the final monthly issue of the Opinion to the Seniors, has devel ped the idea of an annual, separate in organization, content, and appearance.

The staff is entirely separate from that of the Opinion. It is chosen by the editor of the Crest with the helpful suggestions and advice of the faculty.

In some respects the magazine form of the Opinion corresponded to that of the Crest, but with the change made by the Opinion to a weekly newspaper, the difference is quite radical. The Crest is now definitely the Annual of Peoria High School, and not merely the final edition of the month ly literary magazine.

The most noticeable, and probably the most remarkable change in the Annual this year, is the color of the cover. The staff hopes that the color combination at blue and got will not only be acceptable, but also pleasing to the reacers of the Crest. In a mornity with the spirit of progress, the Crest is this year printed on a paper stock much heavier than that used formerly. This paper allows greater clarity and detail in the halftones, besides adding to the value of the Crest in other ways.

The staff wishes to thank the representatives of the different organizations who wrote the accounts of their clubs for the year, and also Dale Prices who wrote the dramatics, and Joe Bosenbury who assisted censiderably in getting advertisements.

Much of the credit for the success of this issue goes to the faculty advisor, Mr. Mairhead. He has spent many weary hours writing, advising, and he ping in genera. Being the only faculty adviser, more work than usual was piled on his unprotesting shoulders.

The staff hopes that they have produced this year an annual which will properly represent the student body and will take a high place among other notable year books. To this end the staff has striven, and they now send the Grest forth among triends, hoping it will uphold the traditions of the past and furnish an inspiration for the future.

Jusendra, the Junior-Senior dramatic society, has prospered greatly ander the affection of Miss Baswell and provises to continue so under the guidance of Miss Newell, its new adviser.

"The Trysting Place" was the first of the season's offerings. "Enter the Hero," "Fiat Lux," "A Night at an Inn," "The Obstinate Family," "La Marrine de la Guerre, and the "French Toyshop," were the other afternoon performances. "The Admirable Crichton," a James Barrie pay, comend by Miss Cornelius, was chosen for the exeming production if the year. The other teachers who have done coaching during the year are: Miss Newell, Miss Bunch, Miss Buswell, Mr. Burns.

Miss Hope Summers, director of dramatics at Bradley, addressed the organization on "Play Production." At another special meeting, Miss Let a Hill and Mr. Action I. sworth of the Gifford Players, each gave a short talls on the interesting organization.

short talk on the interesting experiences of a stock company.

Besides its monthly plays, Josephira presented the Fash on Show, which has heretofore been given entirely by the Domestic Art Department.

In past years, the aim of the Music Club has been to bring the best outside talent to Peoria High. This year, however, has been devoted to the presentation of school talent, and many delightful programs have been given. Much credit is due Charlotte Doyle, the chairman of the program committee.

"The Wishing Well," a charming Irish operetra, was the largest undertaking of the year. Its successful presentation on April 8 was the work of the stadents themselves. Charlotte Dovle was general director, Fave Gehtert, assistant director; Ruth Buck, dramatic coach, Juanita Kime, chorus director, brances Biston, vocal coach, Katherine Hoazland, ballet; and Gladys Smith, costumes. The proceeds from this production were used to defray the expense of sending the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs and solo contestants to the annual Biz Twelve contests held at Springfield.

In this contest, held April 30 and May 1, Peoria High succeeded in taking a generous share of the laurels. Harvey Kuntz placed first in tenor solo work. This is remarkable, considering the fact that he began his truming in solo work only a short time before the contest. Helen Strub har, playing in her usual finished style, won first place in the plano solos Frances Boston placed second in soprano, Clarence Coons, second in flute, and the combined orchestras, second.

Glee Clubs

There are three Girls' Glee Clubs: Freshman, Intermediate, and Advanced. The Freshman, as the name implies, is composed of freshman girls, and is equivalent to first year chorus. Sophomore and junior girls make up the Intermediate Glee Club, while the Advanced Club is composed of semior 2018 and advanced junior girls. The total memocriship of the combined Girls' Glee Clubs is two hundred.

The Freshman and Intermediate Clubs are to sing in the Sangerfest in June. This colossal "singing feast" is directed by Mr. Howard Kellogg, with a chorus of some two thousand.

The Advanced Girls' Glee Club was entered in the State contest. This contest is held annually at Springfield. Last year our Boys' Glee Club placed first, ser Girls' Gree Club, second, and the mixed chorus of sixty, placed second.

The Girls' Sextette, an organization of the Advanced Girls' Club, composed of Annabel Straesser, Wildred Dryden, Fave Gehiert, Januara Kime, Charlette Devie and Ruth Buck, song at the State Leachers' Convention and for several other occasions.

The Boys' Glee Club includes the Freshman and Advanced organizations. There are sixty members in the combined Boys' Glee Club.

The Freshman boys are to sing in the Sangerfest, and the Advanced Boys went down to Springfield.

The Social Science Club, organized three years ago for the purpose of encouraging interest in history, geography, and economics, is one of the most rapid v growing clubs in school. Its membership includes sopholmores, juniors, and seniors who have an average of "G" or "E" in all their subjects. The club meets every second Wednesday, immediately after school. The advisers are Mr. Heghin, Mr. Dai v. Mr. Burns, Miss Watson, Miss Newell, Mr. Murphy and Miss Neville.

This year's program have been especially interesting. Several debates by the students and some very educational talks by the faculty advisers were given, besides programs given by outsiders. Among these were and distrated beture on Spain and I gypt and talks by Chi Gan be, Colone B. C. Bryner, Lieutenant Aiken, and Miss Taylor.

Early in the year, the club sponsored a "get-together" party, and thus established bonds of friendship among the members.

The Social Science Club, strengthened by the loval support and interest of the students and advisers, bids fair to advance rapidly among the organizations of the school.

It must be funny, to judge by the broad grins displayed by this group. What is it all about? Probably Mr. Epstein is explaining to the movie crew what happens when the film is put in upside down.

In the past, the motion picture equipment was not used very often, but this year an interesting, instructive, and well organized schedule of moves was presented to the students and teachers of P. H. S. This was made possible through the efficient and well trained organization shown here. The manner of scheduling, advertising, and showing pictures can be completed favorably with many professional moving picture organizations.

A series of ten science movies was part of the year's program. These pictures were not any entertaining but were of decided educational value. The price of the science movies was five cents per show. In addition to these a series of five long feature movies were shown after school. The price of these was ten cents, but season tickets were sold for the entire series of fifteen pictures at fifty cents.

We are proud of the skillful manner in which a firms were previewed, repaired when necessary, exhibited, and returned to the distributor in good order. Our amateur operators are professional in their efficiency and ability.

In an the contests entered, Peoria High took sixteen first, nine seconds, two thirds, and two fourths. The senior typewriting team won the state champ inship, while the jumor shorthand team placed second in the state. An inter-school contest was also held, and gold, silver, and bringe medals were awarded the winners of first, second and third places in lamor and senior typewriting and jumor and senior shorthand. At each monthly meeting awards for typewriting and shorthand are given.

C. M. T. C.

The C. M. T. C. Club of Peoria High has arranged many plans for the summer camp of 1926. Last summer, with only five representatives of Peoria High's chapter attending Camp Caster, Michigan, fair recognition was gained in spite of so all numbers. Cleon Hammond was one of the six members of the Caster February Feam, and was also an actor in the Camp Custer Follies. Tom Blender was present for his second year in the cavary. Mac Folias and Coin Hammond were the only soldiers to receive marksman medals from this chapter. A rather crude initiation for the first year men was serving as K. P., or Kitchen Police.

The numbership of the Peoria chapter, which is apen to any CM TC students, is comprised of Homer Caldwell, The Blender, Don Matthews, James Entwistle, Mac Tobias, Ben Miles, Celin Hammond, and Ed Tewke. The rectraits are Kermit Henkes and Howard Siegfried. The advisers are Mr. Herke and Mr. Cole.

team won the greatest number of games. The girls of this team were rewarded with emblems on April 14 at a meeting of the G. A. A.

The tennis tournament, posponed last fall, is to be held this spring. The girls have also taken many Saturday morning hikes.

On April twenty-third, the G. A. A. and gym classes sponsored an exhibit in the boys' gymnasium. Dances and apparatus work were the main features of this program.

There were three sweaters, six letters, and eight pins given away in 1925-26. Just as this year has been a very profitable and enjoyable one, we all sincerely hope that next year will be even more so.

Student Prefects

The seemingly impossible has been accomplished. Student government has none is appearance and met with success wherever it has gover-

Three years ago an organization known as the Student Ponce came into existence. The duty of this organization was to keep the corridors free from adders. Later on a good system of ushering for performances in our auditor on was installed by this body. Further steps along this line proved so successful that now even the study-halls are governed by the students.

At the first of this year it was decided to change the name Student Police to Student Prefects, the leaders of the student body. Dick Hoyt was appointed Chief Prefect, and his untiring efforts have hid a great lead to do with the success of the organization.

The Council has been called Mr. Cromwell's right hand. If this is so, then the Student Prefects are the fingers of his right hand.

Debating Club

This year the debating club has been very successful, in that it has been ovally supported by the student bedy which has taken a live interest in debating and the debating club.

The debating teams have suffered reverses although through no tault of their own. They lost both to Manual and to Lincoln.

The question for the school debate was the subject of an independent air force with a secretary in the Presidents' cabinet. The negative of the question was taken by It a Caypool, Evelyn Folliot, and Genevieve View The affirmative was taken by Keith Peters, Luther Dearborn, and Jack Bontjes.

Adam and Eva

"Adam and Eva" was the class play presented by the class of '26. Friday evening, November 13. Although the date was unlucky for the production, it did not seem to bother the class any, for the play was put on with no slip or mishap to mar the evenings' entertainment.

The cast is as follows:

The play was a three act comedy, telling of the trials and tribulations which come to a man who has two young daughters, a worth ess son in law and an uncle to support. Distracted by bills, he turns the whole family over to his business manager, and Adam starts out to manage a family. Thus the play.

A big feature of the production was the third act, an exterior, which showed a farm, with chickens and barn, and all. This was due largely to the stage management. I Mr. Epstein, and his able band of co-workers

The play was a feather in the cap of the class of '26, and was made so by the able coaching of Miss Stuntz.

Trysting Place

Booth Tarkington's "The Trysting Place" was Jusendra's first afternoon production of the year. Fred Crawshaw, Ruth Buck, Elvira Ewert, I by deth Denop. Cofford Ireland, and I verett He school were the nembers of this cast.

The play was a farce, with all the customary hasty explanations, hurried exits, and ludicrous situations. The play took place in a supposedly quiet hotel lobby, but for some reason or other, the plot of the play refused to scep the obby pack, one through the above the extens, the reason or was not quiet either, their outbursts ranging all the way from titters and giggles to loud and hearty guffaws.

Fiat Lux

The December Jusendra production consisted of two plays presented on Friday afternoon, December 18. The first play was "Fiat Lux," cached as Vewer. The cast consisted of Don Merris, Joranes Keyser, Helen Stiehl, and George Parker. The singers for the play were Ruth Buck, Faye Gehlert, Rose Weinstein, Janet Frankel, Lewis Bartley, Otto Kreiter, Everett Hulsebus, Howard Sedgwick.

The play was not in a comic vein, and showed how the light of realization of the Christmas spirit came to an old man whose ideas of life and the world were perverted.

The outstanding feature of the whole play was its remarkable reception. Not a murmur, not a giggle was heard during the whole production, thus enabling the actors to play their roles to the peak of perfection.

Enter the Hero

The second play, "Enter the Hero," also introduced some new actors to the Peoria High Scholl state. The play was presented in a very connearmanner, and left the audience with a smile at the final curtain. The whole plot centered around a girl who was in love with love, and took it out on a poor unsuspecting young man who had been in Brazil for two years. As usual in comedies, complicated situations arose.

Mary Nachman, Evelyn Bosenbury, Paul Pottker, and Iola Claypool made up the cast, which was coached by Miss Stuntz.

"A NIGHT AT AN INN"

Again Jusendra offered something different in the production of Lord Dunsany's "A Night at an Inn" on March 2. The play centers around a large ruby, stolen by theeves from the ido of Kish, and the efforts of the priests to recover it. The audience received it with inevitable shrieks, as a door would open in the dark or a hand appear at a window.

The play was coached by Miss Cornelius, and the cast consisted of Walter Lewke, James Van Cleave, Frank Pockington, Paul Pottker, Harold Evans, Paul Best, Richard Simpson, and Oscar Lung.

"THE OBSTINATE FAMILY"

To relieve the tenseness caused by the first play, the comedy, "The Obstinate Family" to lowed. It shows the natural perverseness of women, and the natural obstinacy of men. An outstanding feature in this play was the pantomime of Fred Meigs and Gertrude Haves as the butler and mind.

Mr. Barns coached the play and the cast was made up of Merton Luller, Blanche Benton, Cleon Hammond, Jean Brown, I red Meigs, and Gertrude Haves.

French Toyshop

The modern language department contributed its share towards Peoria High School's dramatics when they presented "In a French Toyshop" on March 29. This skit was written by Georgette Werner, a French student, who directed and staged it. The cast was composed of Miss Buswell's first hour junior class. The action centered around the antics and performances of the toys for the customers who came to purchase them.

Maraine de la Guerre

The second play on this program was "Marraine de la Guerre" (The War God-Mother), a one-act play with a charming love story. The entire play was in French, and concerned the arrival of an American doughboy, who has been corresponding with a French girl whom he supposed to be very old. Naturally complications result, as they will in all good comedies.

The play was coached by Miss Bunch, and the cast included Eleanor Jack, Kitherine James in Harmet Load, Noda Salaberrer, and Doc Hove. Martha Price gave the explanation in English before the curtain.

SALEN HERKE.

Director of Athletics and Physical Education

Completing this, his tenth year as director of athletics in Peona High School, Salen Herke has established a reputation for developing the highest type of athlete and varsity teams.

This year Central has seen another one of her successful years in arbletics under "Doc." He has brought added honors to both himself and the school. He is well known throughout the middle west and highly respected as one who is a firting example for a high school athlete, a coach who can produce a winning team from poor material, and as one who teaches the player to fight clean and hard in victory or defeat.

SEASON'S REVIEW

The record of the 1325 toothal season, a though not as cattsranding as last year, shows Herke's crew again carried Pe ria High School to one of the foremost positions in the state. Prospects were bright from the outset when the largest number of cand dates ever to report turned out to fight hard for a position. Of these 65 will be an I hardworking cand dates 8 were eftern in from 324. Herke, with these players as a nac eas, brought the narrows through a nine game's hedge, victors in 7, he by mone, and losing the other.

AUSTIN-Here

Austin High of Chicago was the first scalp of the season. In this game Perra place in country one platter, and overwhele at the highly touted team, 34-0. The end-runs, so characteristic of Central's teams, proved to be the undoing of the Northerners.

BLOOMINGTON There

Playing in a down-pour its eet and rain Contral's line he'd the Boomers score ess while Quick's line had kind and Moody's or a runs with machine its interference can up 25 points. The muddy field kept the maroons from piling up a much larger score.

DECATUR—Swamped

Coming with high hopes for a victory, Decatur was humiliated 550. Every Cent I'm had reverge to his heart, and no array on a construction, each pred them in this game. Displaying a beautifully well-timed machine, their on-slaught made Decatur dizzy.

Ration Between Con-

Playing his third year, Captain Buerke directed his team from quarter. Ralph's passes will long be remembered.

ROBERT GEDDES-Center

"Fighting Bob's" motto was, "If beef won't do it, brains will," and his theory worked to perfection. This was Bob's third year, and he was the mainstax of the rear, a ways keep out to spire high. The best center ever to graduate from Peoria High.

INCKSONVILLE LIKE 1

Failing in the attempt to score at least once in four years against Central, Jacksonville went home stinging from a 22-0 defeat. Geddes in the line played a masterial at use. Ho aston a special for the first time his great open field running by streaking down the field for long gains. Peoria's goal has het been it seed this season, thus proxime her great fetensyle strength.

ALLEN NAFFZIGER-Guard

This year "Al" stepped out and won a permanent berth on the team. His great strength made him a bulwark in the line.

RICHARD MOODY—Halfback

"Dick" was a flash when once in the open, and spectacular runs were his specialty. The vacancy made by his graduation will be hard to fill.

ROBERT GREENE-End

"Bob" stepped into a difficult position and proved himself capable of filling it. A pass to him was always counted on. His deadly tackles will make him very valuable next fall.

FRANK BELSLEY - End

"Bells" came through with a loud clang this year, using his weight to great advantage. When opponents hit him they gave up in despair.

ROCK ISLAND BATTLE

Playing in a sea of mud, Peoria's flashy offense was unable to function A though four times within scoring distance, and complete voil playing the Islanders the final punch to put it across was not there and the game ended in a tie. Again the line held well with the brunt of the offense left to Quick and Moody, as Houston was hurt early in the game.

MOLINE

Splashing through water and mud to an 8-3 win over Moline, Central wan her oth vactors of the season. A though being scored on for the first time, the Martions still kept the 2-a uncrossed. Moody, circling the end, scored Peor a's truchdown, while Caldwell downed an olive-terseved player behind the goal, scoring 2 points more.

CALVIN MOODY-

"Cal" has a way of his own of being master of the situation. Always with that determined zeal, he was a stumbling block to many an enemy.

MARSHALL ALLEN-Guard

"Marsh" had the weight and natural ability to earn a letter in his freshman year. Many an opponents attack through him ended in grief.

GEORGE CARTER Tackle

Coming as an out of town player in his senior year, George immediately stepped into the front ranks. He made it tough going over his side of the line.

SPALDING

Playing in her first intra-city game of the year, Central was slow to get away during the first half. Odds stood against us, when, at the end of the first half the "Irish" boasted a 7-0 lead. This seemed to awaken the spirit of the fightengen are one, for with herein many name as missing drive in the third quarter it was evident that Central was not to be denied. Crossing the Purpus line twice, Quak pared the game mit of lang re Mathews, at end, covered two Irish fumbles that later led to touchdowns. Including with Gebies playing up to his assertingly strong that, describe much of the credit for this real fighting spirit.

SPRINGFIELD

The mighty maroons for the only time this year went down in defeat. Lead in a proved a big part in make, a flish work with one is, in personal to Ged es ali in pavel a stellar zine with Cal well in ma fine work. Fumbles, passes, and punts were going wild and it was almost anybody's game until the whistle blew, which ended 3-8.

"Ambitious" seems to be following in his brothers footsteps. He has that Page ability to slip through for a clean tackle.

CARL BOUTON-Guard

"Red" was the third freshman this year to earn a football letter. With more special contract things are so ked for from this natural to other player

LORENZ TOWER—Quarter

Although not playing as a regular, Tower showed great prospect of becoming a star next year. His lack of experience at carrying the ball was his greatest handicap, for he directed the team and passed well.

THANKSGIVING VICTORY

So far undefeated this season, Manual made a stubborn fight to retain aer record, however, Central's opin field running and passes with over her ancient rivals 14. In a king ten consecutive. Thanksgiving victories. Betwee the Oringe and Black fer ized the game was underway a pass to Green and a back by Morry partier as the first touchdown. In the second quarter the plays and end rules in arched the hill within soming distance where Heston ended Central's scoring for the season by shooting across tackle.

JOHN HOWARD

STUDENT MANAGER

By conscientious effort, John Howard, the senior manager, carried the athletic association through a well managed and creditable year. Since Thanksgiving John has been acting as director in advertising and staging all home athletic contests, filling that position in an equally capable manner.

WILLIAM HARDIN

ASS'T MANAGER

The junior member, William Hardin, has served as a great help to John throughout the year and last Thanksgiving succeeded him as acting manager. With William Cooley, sophomore assistant, as the third member of the trio, the teams have been well taken care of, resulting in a well rounded vear.

YELL LEADERS

In the absence of Kenneth Dean at most of the games, Albert Landers and Jack Elliot assumed the responsibility of leading the school in the velling.

Dean was always assured of a hearty response in mass meeting and assembles through the year, which aided greatly in keeping the interest high. Splendid co-operation was shown Landers, Elliott, and Adams.

WILLIAM CONWAY

Here is the second member of the famous Herke-Conway-Lohr triumvirate. "Bill" has been an important factor in the success of Peoria High School's athletics. For ten years he has watched our athletes grow with success and defeat and has accomplished almost everything in his line except to set a broken neck, which he has not had the opportunity of doing yet.

With his jovial and enviable good nature and ever-readiness to doctor every injury, "Bill" has become a great favorite as a doctor and speaker.

DONALD LOHR

DIRECTOR OF INTRA-MURAL SPORIS

This office and personage is a new addition to our athletic organization. The title is somewhat long for such a short person, but we must say that "Dutch" fulfills his duties most efficiently. "Prof.," who is an old P. H. S. grad, has taken a great deal of work off Herkes hands, giving him more time to develop varsity teams.

"Dutch's" efforts have been directly responsible for the high standard of all intra-mural sports, handling of the Greater Peoria Grade School Basketball Tournament, and developing of all varsity second teams. The presence of "Dutch" has been keenly felt and will be needed in years to come.

ROBERT GEDDES - Captain

Playing his third and last year as guard on the maroon varsity, "Bob" acquired the seventh sense of knowing just when to go through with the offense and still be the backbone to the defense work. "Bob" was an able captain and only through fate was he kept off of many tournament teams.

JACK QUICK

The "Fireball" is without equal when drive and offensive strength are considered. He was a most difficult player to guard, being Central's han point man. "Real captained ast year's team and would, so have placed on plany transment teams this year had Central been a lowed to compete. This year ends "Red's" brilliant career.

ROBERT GREENE

"Bob" was a strong player in a pivot position. He possessed a good eye for the hoop and most always outjumped his opponent. He will no doubt be a strong factor in victories next year.

GEORGE SOPER

Disp aviag a remarkable eve for the most pithenli shot. Soap carned a terward berth in his tres iman veir. He was a valuable asset to offensive work in spite of his slight bedd. A woncerto career lies a read. It' Scap' with three more years of competition.

Season's Review

From the outset, the '25-'26 basketball season was a very eventful one. Prospects stold for nothing short of victory in every game of a long schedule, for we had hive men to use as a nacleus. The radials unraveding of events become bifure the schedule started with the loss of a regelar limit semester closed the brisbant career of Quick, the off his extrength of the tear. Then from a clear sky came the nacescasen suspension from

LORENZ TOWER

"Tower" is a steady, dependable guard. His playing was much improved over that of last year. With another year he should be a mainstay of the team.

RAY BUCK

In spite of his small stature, Ray feared no one and played a fast, dashing zame. He deserves credit for stepping to with little experience. After two more years Ray should be a highly rated player.

JOHN GIMMING-Forward

"Farmer" saw action the later part of the season. His lanky build made him a hard man to cope with under the basket. He has a good eye and exhibits a fine brand of floorwoork. "Farmer" has two more years.

athletic competition which struck Centra just when her prospects had brightened with a 45-36 victory over Anderson, Indiana. All this left the maroons no less highly regarded as strong competitors for any team, however, there was nothing left to do but take defeat with victory and allow the rest of the high schools to battle it out for the state's high honors.

The season opened with two decisive victories followed by a one-point defeat at Normal. The sailing was easy in the next nine games, with Central winning all nine battles. The three-game road trip to Indiana ended in two victories and one deteat. Returning heroe, the loss of Quick and suspension heavy on the players' minds, they succumbed to Manual and Spalding, ending the season in a tie for city championship.

Cross Country Team

For the first time in the history of Peoria High School athletics, a cross country than represented the sent of Having per one runner of experience, Charles Shaver, who concludes the sequence and acced as the response, the bays made a good showing at the two meets entered.

In October, they journeyed to Iowa City, Iowa. Through the three tuch snow which covered the ground, nearly two hundred men scrambled up and down the miniature mountains which composed the two-mile course. With Shaver finishing among the first ten, Pettett placing twentieth, and Butler, thirtieth, P. H. S. tied Rock Island; while on the same day, the maroon gridders tied those of Rock Island.

The next not was at the University of Lambs in the Memoriai Stadium. In two is has a since Champa and Urban. Jame Through a drizzling rail, over fifty athletes from ten schools ran over the ten-mile course. In this, Peoria placed third, with Shaver finishing second, Pettett, fourteenth, Landers, eighteenth, Baumflek, twenty-fifth, and Lung, twenty sixth.

All the men on the squad were juniors this year so a winning team is expected next fall.

Len baseball games, nine thotbal games, and eighteen baskerball games, in addition to participation in ten track meets, comprised the varsity activities which the Athletic Association carried on under the supervision of the Athletic Board of Control. This board consists of Mrs. Wisman, Mr. Muirhead, Mr. Cole, Mr. Epstein, Mr. Herke, and Mr. Cromwell, along with John Howard, William Hardin, and William Cooley.

Many schools have special activities which they promote for those whom they want to enter their school. Peoria High is one of these. Last spring we were hists to over one thousand grade school students of the city in a track and field meet. The same kind of meet will be held again this year. The greater Peoria Grade School tournament in basketball was sponsored by the Athletic Association this year. Over two hundred grade school students participated in this contest. Shields were given the winning teams of each division.

Class Basketball

Class basketball played a more prominent part in school athletics this year than ever before. With four evenly-matched teams in the running the games proved an unusually good substitute for varsity basketball.

When the half-way point was reached, all four teams were tied. The interest then rose to a degree heretofore unsurpassed, and all teams redoubled their efforts to cop the coveted honors. From this point on, every game was a battle to the death, and as the official schedule was completed, marked by keen many, heartbreaking moments, and many upsets, the Seners and Jumors had equal claims to the title. In the change in ship game, the Juniors, last year's winners, showed an unexpected basis of speed and deteated the upper classmen, thereby winning the hardest earned honors in years.

Advisory Group Basketball

Advisory group basketball was given a big share of the basketball interest due to the absence of varsity competition late in the season. The advisory group eagers involved places whose spirit was indomittable

The unusual calibre of many of the teams held the interest at a high point, and at the end of the regular playing schedule it was a toss-up as to the possible tournament winner. The highest ranking teams in both divisions engaged in an elimination tournament to decide the '25-'26 champs.

In the lightweight division, Burns, Clausen's, Wynd's and Troth's proved to be the best contenders, Clausen's finally winning from Wynd's in the finals. The all star team consisted of Whitten, Hosher, and Smith, of the winners, Owen, of Wynd's, and Snyder, of Troth's.

In the heavyweight division, after a hard struggle, the "City Slickers" won from the "Live Centers," their toughest rivals, in the semi-finals, and the Damon's in the finals.

THE CREST 1926 ( )

One way to save your teeth is to avoid arguments with large red-headed men, especially if they are of Hiberman descent.

The one thing that a married man will gladly buy his mother-in law is a tombstone

At The Crest of Travel Comfort!

Day or night, for the brief journey or long trip, you are assured of comfort if you travel via Illinois Traction System.

Combined with this comfort is the speed of fast flyers, the safety of automatic block signals, and the cleanliness of the electric train.

Parlor cars provide buffet service, library and club section, and observation platform. Sleeping cars have longer berths, windows in uppers, and safety deposit boxes for valuables.

Truly this is The Crest of travel comfort, convenience and safety.

And there are frequent trains every day in the year to Springfield, St. Louis, Lincoln, Bloomington, Clinton, Decatur, Champaign, Urbana, and Danville.

Illinois Traction System

We extend our hearty congratulations and best wishes to the class of '26.

Your Store — For Today; For Tomorrow!

Practically every business institution today WANTS to serve—must serve to exist!

And when a burning desire to serve is coupled with wide resources, the ability to serve is multiplied many-fold.

Block & Kuhl Co. has grown large through willingness to please—and with growth has become better able to present the things you want at the price you want to pay. It has become almost axiomatic in Central Illinois to "Try Block & Kuhl's first!"

And this reputation for excellence of service shall be jealously guarded in future.

What Will You Do With Its Opportunities?

EVERY ONE of the last fifty years has been a wonderful year, and each succeeding year has been more wonderful than its predecessor.

Here we are, face to face with 1926. It comes laden with with opportunities—with innumerable chances to achieve fame, fortune, authority, or whatever the heart may most desire.

But opportunities in 1926 will mean nothing to the unprepared—they never have meant anything, and they never will.

In the wonderful field of business there will be new achievements, but history will record that they were accomplished by those who were ready for the occasion. Now, on the threshold of this great new year, the message that we want to bring to young men and young women is this: It's Up to You to use your time so that when great opportunities beckon to you, you will be prepared to answer,

"I AM READY!"

Some one might inform the reformers that woolen underwear has a lot to do with the increased dancing of the Charleston.

"Did you see her dress? I told her it was exquisite."

"I told her it was horrid."

"Oh, then you liked it."

Our idea of a miserly wife is one, whose husband's name being Gaspar calls him "Par" to save the "Gas."
